

The Governor's Safety Achievement Award Instructions

The Governor's Safety Achievement Award recognizes Montana's small, medium and large employers and individuals in the public and private sectors that are committed to safety in the workplace. Through their commitment to safety, these employers and individuals are not only creating a safe place to work; they are reducing their workers' comp rate making them leaders in their industry.

Criteria for Employers:

Governor's Safety Achievement Award recipients must meet the following criteria:

- Compliance with the Montana Safety Culture Act
 - Provide documentation of the following:
 - Employee safety orientation
 - Task specific training
 - Regular refresher training
 - Safety awareness program
 - Periodic self-inspection
 - Safety committee
 - Accident or incident investigations
- Have a good safety record
 - Better than average Emod and/or Incident rate for the last 3 years
 - Documentation must be submitted with nomination form.

Criteria for Individuals:

Governor's Safety Achievement Award individual recipients must meet the following criteria:

- Compliance with the Montana Safety Culture Act.
- Must show exemplary leadership, outstanding achievement and implement safety policies and practices to facilitate a safe work environment.
- Promote innovative and creative solutions to engage colleagues in workplace safety programs.

Completing the Form

- Nominations for the Governor's Safety Achievement Award must be submitted electronically using this nomination form and supporting documentation.
